DAILY RACING FORM

ISSUED EVERY DAY.

COULTER'S THREE ALL FAIL.

After sweltering in the heat for four races at Lakeside yesterday, a welcome cool breeze sprang up and made the rest of the afternoon bearable. It was a bad day for the wise ones, only one favorite, Image in the first race getting there though Walkover opened first choice in the last event.

The race of the day was the fourth, a mile condition affair, in which Redskin, 117, Assignee, 112, and Urania were carded to meet. Assignee declined the contest and Redskin opened favorite at 3 to 5, receding to even money. Urania remained firm at 8 to 5. Glenoid was off in front to a bad start, Soden almost pulling up Redskin, thinking it was no go. Urania at once took the lead, and at the quarter had opened up a gap of three lengths, with Redskin second and old Glenoid hanging on to him. At the half there was little change, and at the three-quarters Unania was three lengths in front of Redskin, with the other two out of it, especially St. Lee, who ran badly. In the stretch Soden made his effort on Redskin, but he could not get up, Urania winning easily in fast time.

Thirteen poor ones, of which Image was the best, went to the post in the first race. Corella and Image were in front all the way, the last named winning handily, while Corella just beat Scamp for the place.

Lottie Wimmer, was the favorite in the first half of the two-year-old race at four and a half furlongs. Holy Terror got off in front, and never being headed, won in a drive from Lottie Wimmer, with C. H. Whelan a poor third.

In view of Onalaska's last race, he was at a false price in the mile event for 3-year-olds. Dantes, the full brother to The Butterflies, was a mild favorite, backed down from 6 to 3 to 1. Judge Baker, followed by Warrick, made the running to the half, when Onalaska took the lead and held it to the end, winning easily. Belvour, as usual, came very fast in the stretch and beat Judge Baker for the place. Dantes got off badly, and was never able to get through the crowd.

Chenille was the favorite in the second half of the two-year-old race. She led into the stretch where Siegfried collared her and won handily, with Marie C third.

Walkover got the best of a very indifferent start in the last race, and keeping the advantage to the end won easily from Pinchback who would have been nearer with an even break.

Cougle & Gum have sold to B. J. Johnson the four-year-old colt Caesarian by Faustus—Cleopatra. Price private, but about $3,000.

Among the recent arrivals at Lakeside is the $17,000 disappointment, Dorian, by Sir Modred—Glendora. He was bought recently from the Blemton Stable by Mat Foster and is now in Foster Bro's stable at the track.

Furr, the Kansas City jockey, has arrived at Lakeside.

J. Murphy, the jockey who has gone to New York was ruled off the Indiana tracks for peculiar rides on Siegfried, Merry Monarch and Urania.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving hard; next four even harder. Dorsey's ride on Siddeolus was miserable. His work has not been up to the standard of late. Corella went all to pieces last furlong. Image was hard ridden all the way. Earl of Montrose ran a good race. So did Miss Danahy.

Scratched—Little Eyes, 92.

Winner—B. g, by Panique—Silver Charm.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second and third driving hard. Holy Terror had the speed of the party. He looks high in flesh and should be even better next out. Golden Tide was poorly ridden, boy had him pocketed most of the way. San Benita had speed but could not hold it. Brescia is a bad filly right now. C H Whelan's race was creditable.

Time, 13, 25½, 38, 50¼, 1:03, 1:16½, 1:42.

Winner—B. c, by The Hook—Santa Anita.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Dantes met with many misfortunes, principally through Soden's poor judgment. There was no way though by which he could have won. His worse mishap was at the half mile ground as he moved up. He was shut off three times when he seemed to have chances of getting through. Judge Baker was a trifle short. Boy rode Onalaska well. Warrick had speed. Watch him. Fred K's race was a joke. Treachery seemed to be running easily at the three-eighths pole.

Scratched—Warren Point, 101; Big Strive, 98; El Carmen, 96; Rubberneck (Vagabond), 101.

Winner—Ch. m, 4, by Hanover—Wanda.

Post 70 seconds. Start bad. Won leisurely; second under full pressure. Redskin was almost left. Soden had nearly pulled him up when the rubber was released. St. Lee couldn't get out of his own way. His race was vile. The dispatch did not affect the result. There was no way for Urania to have lost. She floundered a bit at the eighth pole when Caywood let her head down to get whip. It was boy's failure not the filly's.

Scratched—Assignee, 112.
